Air Force Sweeps SoCon's Postseason Awards

SPARTANBURG, S.C. – Regular-season champion Air Force swept the Southern Conference men's lacrosse postseason awards as voted on by the league's head coaches, the conference office announced Tuesday. Falcon attacker Chris Walsch was tabbed SoCon Offensive Player of the Year, while teammate Doug Gouchoe was named Defensive Player of the Year. Head coach Eric Seremet and defender Brandon Jones made it a clean sweep, taking Coach of the Year and Freshman of the Year accolades, respectively.

The league's coaches also selected two all-conference teams and an all-freshman squad.

Walsch earned offensive honors by racking up 29 goals, 25 assists and a league-leading 54 points this season. The sophomore from Hampstead, Md., also notched four game-winning scores during the 2016 campaign, which tied for most in the SoCon. Walsch scored on 35.4 percent of his shots and netted goals on 65.9 percent of his shots that were on frame. His signature performance came in a seven-point effort in a 10-9 upset at then-No. 9 Duke on March 22, capped by a game-winner in the waning seconds of overtime. Walsch earned league offensive player of the week honors three times and was named offensive player of the month for March.

Gouchoe led the league in goals against average (6.93) among players who appeared in more than seven games and was also tops in save percentage (.572) among players who appeared in more than 11 contests. The four-time defensive player of the week selection and two-time player of the month honoree had one of his best performances when he stymied Duke's third-ranked scoring offense with 17 saves. He also recorded a season-high 19 stops at Marist on Feb. 20, the second-most in a game this season in the SoCon.

Jones, a newcomer from Upper Arlington, Ohio, led Air Force with 24 caused turnovers and was fourth in the conference and 22nd nationally with 1.53 caused turnovers per game. The Freshman of the Year pick also collected 36 ground balls for the Falcons this season, which ranked second on the team.

Seremet, who is in his eighth season at the reigns of Air Force, took Coach of the Year distinction in his squad's first season in the league, helping guide the Falcons to a 13-2 overall mark and a perfect 7-0 record in conference play. Air Force achieved its highest ranking in program history by climbing up to No. 9 in the Cascade/Maverik media poll on April 18.

Air Force had a league-high seven All-SoCon selections, including five first-team picks, followed by Richmond (six total), High Point (five), Bellarmine (four), Jacksonville and Mercer (two) and VMI (one).
