1989-90 ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL ANNOUNCED

A total of 393 student-athletes have been named to the Southern Conference's 1989-90 Academic Honor Roll, the league announced Thursday.

In order to qualify for the honor roll, a student must compete in a sport that the conference offers a championship in, pass 24 hours in two semesters during the academic year and have at least a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale for those semesters. Graduating student-athletes whose class loads didn't require them to take 24 hours during the academic year may also be listed.

With 79 qualifiers, Furman has the most representatives on the honor roll. The Citadel, with 63 qualifiers is second, followed by Appalachian State (55), Marshall (54), Western Carolina (53), VMI (35), East Tennessee State (30) and Tennessee-Chattanooga (24). The Citadel's qualifiers includes seven members of its 1990 baseball team that competed in the College World Series.

The honor roll includes eight students who accumulated 4.0 grade point averages. They are: Whitney Ball, Appalachian State (cross country/track); Mike Brady, The Citadel (tennis); Rodney Hennon, Western Carolina (baseball); Matt Lassiter, Furman (cross country/track); Jill McElhinny, Marshall (basketball); Jeff Petersen, Marshall (basketball); Jason Sprouse, Appalachian State (cross country/track) and Mike Wood, Furman (football).

This marks the second year that the Southern Conference has recognized its student-athletes with an academic honor roll. A total of 364 student-athletes qualified for the honor roll during the 1988-89 academic year.
